Greta Thunberg · Preguntas 17 a 22

Greta Thunberg is a young activist who was born in Sweden in 2003. When she was fifteen years old, she started to skip school on Fridays to protest in front of her country's parliament. She wanted adults to take care of the planet and to listen to scientists. Her idea grew quickly, and soon thousands of students in many countries joined her Friday protests. In 2019 she travelled to the United States on a sailing boat, because planes pollute the air too much. She has spoken at important meetings around the world, and many leaders now talk about climate change because of young people like her.
